ENGLISH ZIONIST FEDERATION.

GENERAL ELECTION, 1900.

Opinions of Parliamentary Candidates on Zionism.

DIRECTLY after the close of the General Election, the Executive of the English Zionist Federation were enabled to publish a collection of replies from Parliamentary Candidates who responded to the question put in the circular of which the text is given below.

A good number of such replies did not, however, come to hand when this pamphlet was first published. Some of the letters it will be seen were written when the heat and bustle of the election had passed away, hence this revised edition of replies in favour of the Zionist Movement.

The list is arranged alphabetically according to names, and the place named is the Constituency contested.

The quotations are excerpts from letters responding to the circular, or where so noted, to replies to a question locally put to the Candidate upon the same lines as the circular. The names marked with an asterisk (*) are those of candidates who have been elected to Parliament.

The following is the text of the Circular issued :—

JESSEL CHAMBERS, CHANCERY LANE, W.C.
September 27th, 1900.

DEAR SIR,—The question of Zionism is now agitating the minds of the masses of the Jewish voters in the United Kingdom.

The object of the Zionist movement is to assist those Jews who are persecuted in the lands of their birth to obtain a legally secured home in Palestine, and to settle there under the suzerainty of the Sultan.

It need scarcely be pointed out that the realisation of this movement will practically solve the ever-growing Jewish problem in Europe, and will tend to divert the tide of emigration which now takes place to Western countries. In the interests of humanity and freedom, and in accordance with the great and lofty traditions of England, may I, on behalf of the English Zionist Federation, appeal to you, whenever the same may be necessary, to use your influence to secure the sympathetic consideration of Her Majesty's Government to the Movement, and its good offices in favour of Zionist aspirations whenever the same may be required with those Governments who have interests in Palestine and Syria.

Should you view our Movement with sympathy, and inform me to that effect at your early convenience, I shall be glad to advise our friends, in the constituency you seek to represent, to give all the support to your candidature of which they are capable.

Your obedient servant,

JOSEPH COWEN,
Sessional Chairman.
